Student Creed

I am the author of my own life story.

My intelligence and aptitude are my outline.

The paper on which I write guides my future.

My conscience is my editor.

My perseverance and integrity are my pencil and eraser.

I am committed to solving problems intellectually, not physically.

I understand that I am responsible for the success or failure of my creation.

My words and actions will empower the efforts of others.

I expect to achieve, not just receive.

This is my time and this is my place.
